

PARTICIPATE IN A
Paid Interview about
Obstructive Sleep Apnea (OSA)!

We are currently conducting a research study with patients who have been diagnosed with OSA.

Do you have OSA?

If so, the American Academy of Sleep Medicine is interested in talking to you to test a new electronic questionnaire intended for use with patients who may have OSA.

The study will consist of a confidential 60-minute one-on-one telephone interview where you will be asked about your thoughts on questions within a questionnaire. Patients who complete a screener and qualify, will be interviewed and receive a payment of $100 for their participation in the study.
