

Implicit Bias & Microaggressions in Medicine: A Fireside Chat with Carl Lambert, MD
LIVE webinar

January 28, 2021 1 p.m. ET

Disclosure

Statement of Need

The need for this activity has been determined based on identifying professional practice gaps, as well as review of previous course evaluations and member surveys. The educational content was developed based on current issues and topic trends provided by the American Academy of Sleep Medicine (AASM) leadership and membership.

Disclosure Statement

As an education provider accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME), the American Academy of Sleep Medicine must ensure balance, independence, objectivity, and scientific rigor in all its sponsored educational activities. All product developers, planners, and speakers are expected to disclose any relevant financial interest or other relationships held by the individual, or members of their family, that are relevant to the presentation over the preceding twelve months with (1) manufacturers of any commercial products and/or providers of commercial services, (2) any commercial supporters, (3) any off-label or investigational uses of products. The individual is also required to disclose if he/she has no relationships with any manufacturers, products or services that are relevant to the presentation. The ACCME Standards for Commercial Support require accredited CME providers to resolve all identified potential conflicts of interest with any individual in a position to influence and/or control the content of CME activities prior to the education activity being delivered to learners.

Resolution of Conflicts of Interest

AASM has implemented mechanisms to identify and mitigate conflicts of interest for all individuals in a position to control content, prior to the planning and implementation of these CME activities. Course Chair(s) reviewed the COI declarations and are satisfied that no commercial bias exists. All Conflict of Interest Disclosures are provided to participants prior to start of the activity.

Faculty Disclosures:

The following faculty members have no relevant relationships with any commercial interests to disclose:

Carl E. Lambert, Jr., MD, FAAFP and J. Mori Johnson, MA

Planner Disclosures:

The following planners have no relevant relationships with any commercial interests to disclose:
Fauziya Hassan MD, MS and Kyra Clark MD, FACP FAASM

Terms of Use/Disclaimer

Copyright ©2021 American Academy of Sleep Medicine. All rights reserved.

No part of this publication may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system, or transmitted in any form by any means, electronic, mechanical, photocopying, recording, or otherwise without the prior written permission from AASM.

This information provided in this CME activity is for continuing medical education purposes only and is not meant to substitute for the independent medical judgment of a health care provider relative to the diagnostic, management, and treatment options of a specific patient's medical condition. The American Academy of Sleep Medicine (AASM) is not responsible for statements made by the speakers. The methods, techniques, and procedures demonstrated, and views and opinions expressed by speakers are their own, and do not necessarily represent those of AASM nor does their participation in the activity represent or constitute endorsement or promotion by AASM.

Acknowledgement

The American Academy of Sleep Medicine (AASM) is accredited by the Accreditation Council for Continuing Medical Education (ACCME) to provide continuing medical education for physicians. AASM designates these educational activities for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™:

Bias and microaggressions in medicine- LIVE webinar - Maximum of 1.00

The American Academy of Sleep Medicine (AASM) designates the Bias and microaggressions in medicine- LIVE webinar as a live activity for a maximum of 1.00 AASM Continuing Education Credits (CECs). Sleep Technologists should only claim credit commensurate with the extent of their participation in the activity.

The AASM will issue all other non-physicians a letter of attendance for activities designated for AMA PRA Category 1 Credits™.