

Ray Anthonijsz is the director of accreditation for the American Academy of Sleep Medicine (AASM) and has been with the organization for over 6 years. Prior to his time with the AASM, he was a General Manager (GM) for a Sleep Management Company where he received and maintained accreditation for sleep facilities. Now, as the director of accreditation for the AASM, he provides oversight to the entire accreditation department. This experience has allowed him to have unique perspective into both the facility applying for accreditation and the accrediting body that grants accreditation.
