

Anita Valanju Shelgikar, MD, MHPE

Dr. Shelgikar is a professor of neurology at the University of Michigan Medical School, where she serves as program director for the ACGME-approved sleep medicine fellowship, one of the largest in the country. Dr. Shelgikar has a Master's degree and long-standing focus on medical education, and particularly competency-based education and assessment, along with curriculum design and evaluation. She leads a program to assess progress made by UM medical students in a nationally innovative, competency-based approach to the clinical training years.

Within the AASM, Dr. Shelgikar was elected as a member and later chair of the Sleep Medicine Fellowship Directors Council Steering Committee. She has served on the AASM Education Committee and the Fellowship Models Exploratory Committee, and served as the vice-chair for the Innovative Fellowship Model Implementation Presidential Committee. Dr. Shelgikar currently serves on the AASM Board of Directors and is the Immediate Past President of the AASM Foundation.
