

Tom DiSalvi

Vice President of Safety, Driver Training and Compliance
Schneider National, Inc.

Tom DiSalvi is the Vice President of Safety, Driver Training and Compliance at Schneider, a premier provider of transportation, logistics and intermodal services. In this role, he is accountable for safety, driver training and regulatory compliance, as well as leading a culture of safety throughout the Schneider Enterprise. He is also responsible for researching and implementing breakthrough safety technologies and processes to prevent motor vehicle crashes, consistent with Schneider's core value of "safety first and always."

Tom began his professional career with Schneider National in 1991 and he assumed his current role in 2015. Prior to joining Schneider, Tom was an Officer in the United States Navy.

Recognized by the National Safety Council with the Distinguished Service to Safety Award in 2014 and by the American Trucking Association (ATA) with the 2012 National Safety Professional Award of Excellence, Tom's roles outside of the Schneider organization include:

- Vice Chairman, Board of Directors, National Sleep Foundation
- Member, Board of Delegates, National Safety Council
- Member, Board of Directors, Wisconsin Motor Carrier Association
- Member, Advisory Group, The Trucking Alliance
- Past Chairman, National Safety Council's Transportation Safety Division
- Past Chairman, Wisconsin Council of Safety Supervisors, Wisconsin Motor Carrier Association
- Past Member, Research Advisory Council, American Trucking Research Institute (ATRI)

Tom holds a Bachelor's Degree from the University of Florida and a Master's Degree from Auburn University. He has also earned the Certified Director of Safety designation from the North American Transportation Management Institute (NATMI) and holds a Class A Commercial Driver's License (CDL) with Tank Vehicles, Passengers and Double/Triple endorsements.
