

Dr. Fariha Abbasi-Feinberg, MD, FAASM, FAAN, is a board-certified sleep medicine physician and neurologist with expertise in health policy, practice management, physician wellness, and patient care. She practiced sleep medicine in North Carolina for 20 years before relocating to Fort Myers, Florida, where she serves as medical director of sleep medicine for Millennium Physician Group. A nationally recognized speaker and media contributor on sleep health, she currently serves on the AASM Board of Directors and is president of the American Academy of Sleep Medicine.