

William “Robby” Beauchamp, BS, RRT, RPSGT, is sleep lab coordinator and team leader for the Sleep Disorders Program at Tampa General Hospital and adjunct faculty at the University of South Florida Morsani College of Medicine. With more than 35 years at TGH and nearly three decades in respiratory care and sleep medicine, he specializes in sleep laboratory operations, quality improvement, and program development. He also supports sleep medicine research, publications, and education for physicians, residents, and fellows.